

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

17 June 2026

To Whom It May Concern,

It is our pleasure to provide this letter of recommendation for Neil Breytenbach and Jesse Breytenbach of Canvyr.

Our agency has had the privilege of working with Neil for several years, initially as part of Prime Circle and, more recently, alongside Neil and his son Jesse as Canvyr. Throughout this time, we have managed their public relations and media engagement, giving us first-hand insight into their professionalism, talent and commitment to excellence.

Neil and Jesse are consummate professionals in every sense of the word. They are reliable, dedicated and exceptionally easy to work with, consistently delivering on every commitment. What sets them apart is their deep understanding of the music industry and their ability to remain relevant in an ever-evolving landscape. They have an instinctive understanding of what audiences want and continually deliver performances and content that resonate with music lovers across generations.

Their ability to extend their music beyond the stage is equally impressive. They have successfully built a strong presence across social media and digital music platforms, strategically engaging with fans while maintaining authenticity. Their understanding of audience engagement and modern music marketing is exceptional, ensuring that every performance continues long after the final song has been played.

As live performers, Neil and Jesse are outstanding. Their chemistry on stage, musical ability and genuine passion create memorable experiences that leave audiences wanting more. Whether performing their original music or delivering tribute performances, they approach every show with the same level of dedication, professionalism and musical excellence.

Most recently, their Nirvana Tribute Show was exceptionally well received, earning praise from audiences and industry stakeholders alike. It perfectly showcased not only their musicianship but also their ability to honour iconic music while making every performance uniquely their own.

From a media perspective, Neil and Jesse are a dream to work with. They are articulate, engaging and always well prepared for interviews. They have built strong relationships across the media landscape, with demand for interviews and performances spanning community radio stations and local newspapers through to mainstream national radio and television.

Media outlets consistently welcome opportunities to feature them because they know they are speaking with credible, knowledgeable and entertaining artists.

It is rare to encounter artists who combine exceptional musical talent with such a high level of professionalism, reliability and strategic understanding of today's entertainment landscape. Neil and Jesse embody all of these qualities, making Canvyr not only an outstanding musical act but also trusted partners for promoters, venues, media and event organisers alike.

We have no hesitation whatsoever in recommending Neil and Jesse Breytenbach and Canvyr. They are an exceptional act who consistently exceed expectations both on and off the stage, and we look forward to continuing our successful working relationship with them for many years to come.

Yours sincerely,
